THE BEST WESTERN Royal Victoria Hotel

Situated on the seafront in the heart of St Leonards, the BEST WESTERN Royal Victoria Hotel offers affordable luxury in the form of 52 elegant bedrooms, many of which boast separate lounge areas and stunning sea views. Built in 1828 by architect James Burton, the building is filled with eye-catching period features, antique furnishings and a breath taking Grade II listed marble staircase with 22ft mirror which leads to our welcoming Piano Lounge and Bar.

We have been hosting Masonic Weekends for many years and are well acquainted with every aspect of running such events. Our close association to the Masonic Hall, situated behind the Hotel, makes us the ideal venue.

Able to cater for up to 100 guests, we....

“.....Offering your guest a tailor made package to suit your requirements and budget.”

We are proud to be part of BEST WESTERN, the world's largest group of independently owned hotels. As well as retaining all of the charm and personal service you'd expect from an independent hotel, we belong to a brand you can trust to ensure the high standards you deserve.
